General Post-Office, January 24, 1795.

IN Consequence of the present Interruption to the Correspondence between this Country and Holland, a Communication will be immediately opened by His Majesty's Packet-Boats between Yarmouth and the Elbe, and the Mails will be made up and dispatched from this Office every Tuesday and Friday Night as usual; and as the Letters to and from all Parts of Europe, except Spain and Portugal, will now be sent through this Channel, it is necessary to inform the Public, that from this Time, the Postage of all Letters to Holland or Flanders, must be paid before-hand, the same as to Hamburgh, or all Parts of Germany, and the North of Europe, at the Rate of One Shilling each single Letter, Two Shillings double, Three Shillings treble, and Four Shillings the Ounce, without which they cannot be forwarded; and the same Rates are to be paid for all Letters from those Countries.

Besides the foregoing Rates of Foreign Postage, it will be necessary, as usual, to pay at the Office in Great Britain or Ireland, where such Letters are put in, the full Port to London.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,

General Post-Office, February 7, 1795.

NOtice is hereby given, that in consequence of an Application from several Merchants of London, the Mails of Letters made up at this Office for Holland on the 13th, 16th and 20th of January last, are detained by Warrant of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, until His Majesty's further Order; and that an Application will be immediately made to Parliament to authorize the Post-Master-General to return such of the said Letters as shall be applied for by the Writers thereof, or by any Persons duly authorized to make such Application in their Behalf. As soon as the Mode of such Application shall be settled by Act of Parliament, due Notice will be given thereof from this Office.

By Command of the Post-Master General,

Anth. Todd, Secretary.
